

Learn Local

Do you want to learn something new in a welcoming and professional environment?

Interested in courses that can be tailored directly for you?

Are you a business that needs to upskill your staff?

Take your next step with us!

Every year over 100,000 Victorians choose to learn through government registered Learn Local adult community education organisations.

From Melbourne to Mildura to Mallacoota, there is a Learn Local organisation near you that offers a range of education and training programs for people from all walks of life. Courses range from basic computer skills to Certificates (including VET and VCE / VCAL) and Diplomas in all types of areas such as business, community services or trades. The focus is on individual needs, tailoring programs for both learners and businesses.

No matter what level of education or training you have had in the past, Learn Local can help. New skills can be life changing, offering job choices, further education and the chance to interact with others in your local community.
